

JOB SEARCH WEB SITES

Compiled by the Social Sciences Section of the Central Library

SPRING 2004

Local Job Search Resources

<http://www.sandiego.gov/empopp>

The City of San Diego's employment opportunities web site. Provides job information for the City, including current openings, application procedures, and FAQs.

<http://www.sdcounty.ca.gov/hr>

The County of San Diego Human Resources web site. Has County job listings as well as benefits & salary information.

<http://joblink.uniontrib.com>

Provided by the San Diego Union Tribune and SignOnSanDiego.com. Allows job seekers to search the Union Tribune classified ads employment listings as well as listings for local companies.

<http://jobstar.org/sd>

Links to local job resources such as ads, hotlines, job fairs, career centers, and more.

<http://www.sdcoe.k12.ca.us/hrt/emp.asp>

San Diego County Office of Education employment web site. For educators and those seeking employment in the 43 school districts of San Diego County.

<http://joblink.ucsd.edu>

University of California San Diego jobs site.

<http://www.sdsu.edu/openpositions.html>

San Diego State University jobs site.

<http://www.workforce.org/>

Sponsored by the San Diego Workforce Partnership. Provides job listings, career help, articles on the local job market, and a section for youth.

<http://www.sandiegojobs.com>

From the California Online Job Network. Local job listings are updated within last 30 days. Searchable by keyword, category, and company name.

<http://www.jobright.com>

Nonprofit employment resources organization with listings for technical and professional job opportunities in San Diego.

<http://www.caljobs.ca.gov>

Allows users to not only browse job listings, but also create and store resumes for on-line viewing by prospective employers in the San Diego area. From the State of California's Employment Development Department's (EDD) Job Service.

National Job Search Resources

<http://www.monster.com>

The top job search & information web site. Boasts a tremendous amount of features, from job searching to career advice.

<http://flipdog.monster.com/>

Affiliated with monster.com. Offers a large amount of job listings not available on other job web sites. Uses a unique technology to collect listings directly from employer web sites.

<http://www.ajb.org>

America's Job Bank web site from the U.S. Department of Labor. Offers over 1.5 million openings from employers and state public employment service agencies nationwide. Also provides a broad range of assistance for job seekers, from career information to dealing with unemployment.

<http://www.careerbuilder.com>

Feature-rich job & career web site offers more than 300,000 continuously updated jobs, representing more than 25,000 of the top employers in virtually every industry and field.

<http://www.employmentguide.com>

The online version of the nationwide print publication, The Employment Guide.

<http://www.brassring.com>

Nationwide listings for high tech professionals seeking IT jobs, tech jobs, Internet jobs, and job fair information. Includes articles, career resources, and more.

<http://www.dice.com>

Lists thousands of high tech jobs by keyword, job type, state, and area code. Features a rate and salary survey to determine what wages job applicants can command.

<http://www.usajobs.opm.gov>

Sponsored by the Federal Office of Personnel Management in Washington, D.C. Provides mostly federal job opportunities with over 17,000 listings worldwide.

<http://www.fedworld.gov/jobs/jobsearch.html>

Job database allows users to search abstracts of open U.S. Federal Government Jobs.

<http://www.medhunters.com>

One of the leading online job boards for healthcare professionals and employers in North America.

You may also find other job search sites by using search engines such as <http://google.com> or <http://yahoo.com> and typing the keywords "job search" in the search box.